

Preventing Workplace Bullying and Harassment

The Preventing Workplace Bullying and Harassment workshop is designed for managers to help them understand the problem of bullying in the workplace context and to provide sensible, best practice strategies for recognising managing and removing the risks of workplace bullying.

Benefits of the program include:

- Develop capacity of managers to identify and prevent bullying behaviours.
- Provide strategies to support or deal with impacted employees.

Workshop format

An Interactive and engaging three hour workshop including group and individual activities to maximise participation.

To find out more contact your Account Manager today.

Learning outcomes

- Recent changes to the law and what that means for employers and their managers.
- Recognising the signs of bullying and harassment
- Why does it occur and what are the risks.
- Their responsibilities as a manager and those of their superiors.